

ANTARCTICA

TONY SOPER

ILLUSTRATIONS BY DAFILA SCOTT

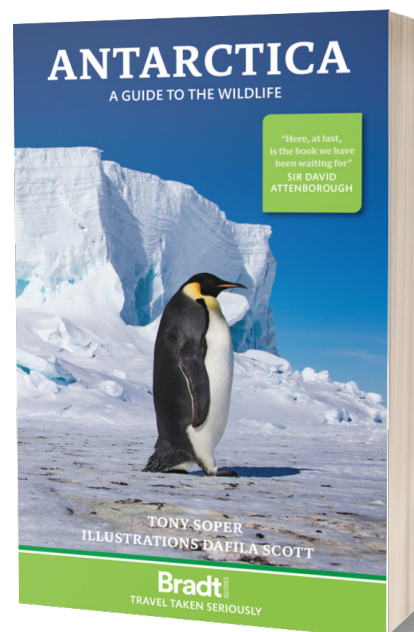

Updated throughout, the eighth edition of Bradt's Antarctica: a guide to the wildlife celebrates the amazing species of this spectacular environment and brings to life the history of Antarctic exploration. Written by broadcaster and polar expedition leader Tony Soper, this readable introduction to fauna and flora is ideal for those 'going south', featuring chapters on whales and penguins alongside entries on lesser-known species such as sheathbills. Each species account blends natural-history and identification insights with specially commissioned artwork by award-winning artist Dafila Scott.
